DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-57, 65-70, 58-64 and 71-79 (renumbered as 1-79, respectively) are allowed.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The invention as now claimed is not disclosed or rendered obvious in view of the prior art of record. As to claims 1, 37 and 79, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest, alone or in combination, the recited system and method that combines the steps of determining a first identity from among the several identities based on the configuration data accessed; determining whether the first identity is available to receive a first electronic communication associated with the phone call; and sending to the first identity the first electronic communication associated with the phone call conditioned on whether the first identity is determined to be available to receive the first electronic communication as set forth in the recited claims.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
